LINBECK PROMOTES IKE ALLEN TO CLIENT EXECUTIVE

September 29, 2008 (Houston, TX) Linbeck announces the promotion of Ike Allen to the position of Client Executive. Since joining Linbeck in 1981, Ike Allen's career has progressed from an engineer to estimator to a project manager specializing in the educational, healthcare, and corporate sectors. Ike has over 29 years of extensive experience, nearly all with Linbeck, as a leader in the construction industry with demonstrated accomplishments in all aspects of our business. He is a hands-on, results-driven team player with a customer-focused attitude excelling in dynamic and challenging business environments.

He is currently leading efforts for KIPP Academy's 40-school master plan and has completed six campuses located in Houston. Other clients include St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital, Memorial Hermann, Sam Houston Race Park, and Texas Christian University

Ike received his BS in Architectural Engineering from the University of Texas @ Austin. He has a strong commitment to the Houston community and volunteers for HISD's Spark Park Program. He currently serves on Texas Southern University's Advisory Board of Construction Technology and is the chair of TSU's construction program advisory board. Ike is an active member of the Houston Minority Business Council and St. Mary of the Purification Catholic Church where he volunteers and serves on several councils, committees, and programs.
